Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Volume 68, No. 21 – Sixth Sunday of Easter – May 26, 2019

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

This Friday, May 31, is the Feast of the Visitation of Mary. We celebrate the event where the Blessed Mother visits St. Elizabeth, her cousin. It is a powerful moment where two holy women share their joy, anxiety, worry, anticipation. They embrace with the knowledge that they will each give birth to an extraordinary person; the prophet who proclaims the birth of the Anointed One and the Anointed One. The Visitation provides Elizabeth with the opportunity to declare the blessedness of Mary, acknowledge that John leapt in her womb and affirm that this young woman before her trusted the Lord's word.

It also provides Mary the opportunity to voice one of the most beautiful canticles of the Sacred Scriptures, the Canticum of Mary also known as the Magnificat.

Mary's whole being declares the greatness of God. Her very essence, her spirit finds joy in God her savior. There is no power on earth that can separate from the love that she has for God. She has already given Him a resounding 'yes' to His invitation to her to bring His Son into the world. She has offered her life for the sake of His Son. She has offered her complete being to the presence of God. Her prayer before Elizabeth is rooted in her own experiences as a daughter of Jerusalem. Her journey is connected to the people of Israel. They have been brought low, now God is lifting them up. They have been bound by their oppressors, now God is setting them free. God is setting us free because of her 'yes'.

She traces God's hand through salvation history and what He has done for His people. She knows His work, His life amongst His own. She is one of His own and cradles the rest of creation to receive His presence. With this visit to Elizabeth, Mary brings to the mother of the prophet, the presence of the Messiah. By her visit, Mary ushers in the Messianic Age, the Messianic Kingdom. She is the prophet who introduces to the prophet the one he will proclaim.

But we echo the words of Elizabeth. Who are we that the mother of our Lord should come to us? Who are we that the Blessed Mother should choose to be our mother as well? Why would this woman, full of grace and wondrous life, choose to embrace us as well as her broken son? She embraces us because she is full of grace. In saying 'yes' to the Father, she says 'yes' to Jesus and His family. We are that family the Mary visits. She brings the Messiah to us, not because of our worthiness, but because we are His.

We are ever mindful of His mercy. Even as He promised our mothers and fathers, Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebekah and all those who have gone before us, we are in covenant with a good and gracious God who shares His mother with us.

The Blessed Mother reminds us of this sacred covenant with God. She who is full of grace, challenges us to recognize His grace in our lives. She leads us to the depths of ourselves where we find Him. Our being proclaims the greatness of God. Our spirits rejoice in God our savior. He has looked upon us, seen His mother and called us blessed.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29 Faced with controversy, the disciples reach a decision under the Holy Spirit's guidance.

Psalm 67 "O God, let all the nations praise you!"

Rev 21: 10-14,11-23 John sees the city of God illumined in splendor.

John 14:23-29 Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to guide his followers.

As we approach Pentecost, let us consider the role the Holy Spirit plays in our lives. Jesus teaches his disciples that they will be able to rely on the Holy Spirit for guidance and instruction. Indeed, in Acts we see the leaders of the church trusting the Holy Spirit to guide them in deciding what to require of Gentile converts. As we listen to God's word today, let us recall the gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.
