Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

The new school year is upon us. The hustle and bustle of school preparation is rushing its way across the land. It has become as high-pressured as Christmas. Families need to get this or that or lots of this or that to be ready for the beginning of school. Faculty and administration are preparing classrooms, bulletin boards, locker rooms, myriads of forms and things to be filled out, processed, filed. To say that preparing for the beginning of school is a stressful time for families and school personnel is an understatement. The energy it takes to make sure everything is ready and functioning is overwhelming.

In simpler times, it was only about getting new pencils, colors, paper and a few new clothes to address the serious growth spurt over the summer – not to succumb to the demands and whims of the current reigning fashionistas. Times have definitely changed.

In the midst of all the anxiety and worry, excitement and resentment we attune our listening to the invitation to begin again. For some of our smaller brothers and sisters it is the song of beginning, of entry into formal education and the start of friendships and relationships that will last a lifetime. For our older brothers and sisters in education it might be the first heart-hint of ‘I wonder if I should retire next year?’

Beginnings and new beginnings are about entering into the mystery of creation. The new light is different and brighter. The wind blows a new, fresh scent of hope and possibility. ‘Who we were’ ushers in ‘who we are’ and ‘who we can be’. Possibility is set before us to give us opportunity to make new decisions and meander in new directions. We join hands with the Divine Master to become co-creators of a world unfinished, a world entrusted to us to be newly baptized. At this precipice of beginning we stand with The Anointed One, with the prophet to look out onto a new Jerusalem where we make better decisions and more life-giving choices.

All of us, not just those going into the classroom, receive the invitation to begin. Throughout the summer we listened to the scriptures relay Jesus’ invitation to discipleship; how we follow, how we serve, what price we pay, how to be last to be first, how to pray, how to sit at His feet, how to be a brother or sister or neighbor – a good Samaritan. Our beginning is upon us. The call to discipleship now becomes the actions of disciples. Our calling becomes more than an invitation, but an empowerment to do ministry, to do the work of a disciple, to be church. All the preparation is brought to fulfillment; the work of co-creation begins.

Beginning reminds us to be grateful, always grateful that the Father gives us these beginnings and empowers us to do the work. He trusts us enough to invite us and gives us His Spirit to join Jesus in the journey. The Father believes in us to invite us to be co-creators with Him. He sent His Son to pilgrim with us in all beginnings and endings. We are given these opportunities to live out His Son’s gospel and the mission of His Spirit. We begin again to say ‘yes’ to that wondrous invitation. We pray for the courage to follow through with our ‘yes’.

Our prayers are also with Chad and Dylan who return to the seminary part of their discernment journey. We pray for their happiness and openness to God’s presence. We are grateful for their ministry this summer and the giftedness they shared with us. May the Father continue to bless them in mercy and love.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 18:6-9 On the long awaited Passover night, God's children offered the paschal sacrifice.

Psalm 33 "Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own."

Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 By faith we join our ancestors in faith, as together in hope we journey toward our homeland.

Luke 12: 32-48 The Son of Man will come at an unexpected hour.

Each of today's readings assures us that we can always trust in God. Wisdom reminds us that the Chosen People's courage came from their faith in God's promises. Hebrews recalls Abraham's unwavering faith in what they cannot know, like when the master will return from a wedding. We cannot know the future, but we can know whom to trust.

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
