Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

One of the best things about growing older is you get to tell stories about your early years and could care less if anybody listens or shows any real interest. It should be considered a right and privilege of the seasoned. I claim that right in today's reflection.

In the late nineteen-sixties when so many 'revolutions' were taking place in society and the world, I found myself in high school seminary in Lafayette. Very few high school seminaries exist anywhere in the United States these days. I think there are less than ten to be found.

Immaculata Minor Seminary was founded in the 1940s by Bishop Jules Jeanmard, our first bishop in the Diocese of Lafayette. The actual building now serves as the Chancery for the Diocese. When I served with Bishop O'Donnell, Bishop Jarrell and briefly with Bishop Deshotel as Diocesan Chancellor, my office had once been the study hall I was in my first two years of high school. Many times, I sat in my office and got the 'frissons' when I thought about those lonely Sunday afternoons trying to learn Latin conjugations, mathematical equations, French poetry, and do assigned spiritual reading without bouncing my head on the desk in frustration and despair. Homesickness would come in waves for us thirteen-year-olds who left home and family in search of a priestly vocation.

About once a month we would be rewarded with a 'town day' or a 'walk day'. For town days we could walk downtown to go shopping at Woolworth's or McCrory's. We could go to Abdalla's or Heyman's, but we had very little money, so we avoided those places. We could also get in free at the Nona Theater or the Jefferson Theater for a movie. For walk days we were allowed to leave campus, but we could not enter a store or restaurant. We could walk around for a few miles, then return to the seminary. Sounds exciting, huh? But for us, it was exciting. It was a chance to leave and see the real world. At least that's how we felt. I remember walking on the new concrete slab of what would become the Northgate Mall. Makes me sound really old.

For those of us who went through the seminary high school experience, I think there was a whole love/hate dynamic that partially defined us. Two years ago, some of us got together who started seminary in 1967. It was wonderful to reminisce, laugh, regurgitate past resentments and simply to remember. A significant part of the human experience throughout the journey is the remembering. Somehow through all the myriad of memories, funny and sad, we discover the God who walks with us throughout the journey.

Jesus is the Incarnate Word, the Word-made-flesh. This means He is deeply embedded in our story. We see His movements throughout the dances we experience. A vital part of our spiritual journey is to discover and rediscover how He walked and danced with us. We are called to see how He walks and dances with us now, every moment, every day, every life. He chooses to be with us, not to admonish, but to lift us up. To hold us high. Recently I was reading a novel where the author was describing how beautiful Colorado was. God carved the valley then lingered. I think that's how He does with each of us. He breathes us into life, then lingers with us. He is mesmerized by the beauty He has created, the story He has crafted. He wants to live with us, because He takes delight in His artistry; in who we are and who we will become.

One day, when you're walking somewhere (a 'walk day') remember who is beside you. He is there because He takes delight in you. He is there because you are precious to Him. He is there because He loves you. Now remember that always.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 38: 4-6, 8-10 Because he demoralized the people, Jeremiah is condemned to death.

Psalm 40 "Lord, come to my aid!"

Hebrews 12: 1-4 We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses, who can teach us how to struggle for glory.

Luke 12: 49-53 Jesus says: I have come to divide.

Jeremiah spoke truth to power and was nearly killed. Jesus admits he has come to sow discord; eventually he is crucified. But there is hope! Jeremiah was lifted out of the cistern. Jesus was raised from the dead. God will not abandon us. Let the words from Hebrews give us hope in the midst of our struggles: "Jesus endured such opposition...in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart."

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
