Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Every new day should be greeted with a grateful heart. Every day should start with a 'thank you' to the Father, and not just because we're breathing for at least one more morning. To give the Father thanks means that we acknowledge His goodness, His generosity, His presence in our first thought, our first feeling, our first moment of consciousness. As we shake off our sleep, our awareness is drawn to His providence. There is no wakefulness without His grace.

We stretch, we moan, we complain, we ache, we slowly face the day. Or we might be one of those rare people who pop out of bed like a piece of toast, soaring through the air, ready for action. However we start the day, it really should be in gratitude. The beginning of each day is a re-creation, a promise of God for a new start. Our gratitude does not mean we have to be in a good mood, but it does mean that by our acknowledgement of the presence of a loving God, a Father who is in covenant with us, we are facing a day with someone at our side. We turn toward the dawn, facing the sun with the Son.

Gratitude means we understand that the day does not rely solely on our efforts, our successes or failures, our gifts or faults. The day rests in God and how He moves in our efforts, successes, failures, gifts, faults. We belong to Him: this is the heart of the message of gratitude.

Even though our thankfulness may not immediately improve our mood. It nudges us towards a more life-giving state of being. The focus is no longer just on us, but on the Other. It is this Other that leads us to transcendence. We transcend the aches and pains and move beyond ourselves to be one with the Other. God invites to share the day with Him and allow His presence to lift us beyond the pale.

A grateful heart teaches us to not get stuck in the muck and mire of complaint and resentment. God's grace pushes us from self-obsession and invites us to focus on the promise before us. A grateful heart tells us that we are good and holy because God has made us so. He has created us in His image and likeness and our pilgrim journey empowers us to grow ever more into His image and likeness. His grace/gift enriches and nourishes our goodness and holiness and moves us toward a better day.

The only way to battle resentment and bitterness is with gratitude. We know deep in our being when we are slipping into that mud that makes us complain and whine about everything and everybody. We know that this is not where we were meant to live our lives. We know how selfish we can be when we allow ourselves to fall into that pit that holds us captive with rage and anger. Everybody is against us. Everybody is the enemy. Everybody wants to see our downfall. I refuse to be grateful because it makes me look weak, and they will take advantage of my weakness and vulnerability. We lie to ourselves when we think we are so unattractive to God that He refuses to enter our day, our hearts, our lives.

Gratitude tells us He is here in the midst of us. He is the God-among-us, Emmanuel, the Wonder Counselor, the Anointed One, the Chosen. That's who lives with us each and every day. Every moment He breathes His Spirit in us and places His Son in our very being. He does it because He refuses not to love us. He will always love us in fresh and exciting ways.

For that alone we start the day in gratitude.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 66:18-21 Outcasts will be gathered home by God as a precious offering in glory.

Psalm 117 "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News."

Heb 12: 5-13 Discipline strengthens what is weak.

Lk 13: 22-30 The doorway into the kingdom is narrow.

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that the gate to eternal life is narrow and many will not get through. However, both Isaiah and Jesus speak of people from the ends of the earth being welcomed into the presence of the Lord. We would do well to remember what God asks of us and then follow the advice of Hebrews and accept discipline. Let us exercise the discipline to listen to the word of God and take it to heart.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
