Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #25

Memory (Part 2)

Woven into the fabric of human life is the ability to remember that which was and is good and redeeming. The Jewish theological principle of Objective Memorial is at the very heart of the Eucharist. Where St. Thomas Aquinas was inspired to develop the wondrous teaching of Transubstantiation to explain how the simple elements of bread and wine substantially become the Body and Blood of Jesus, the idea of Objective Memorial predates the church's teaching to the beginnings of Hebrew spirituality.

To remember the past, brings it to the present and changes us for the future. To remember the salvific events of the Exodus from Egypt, empowers the Hebrews to move ever closer to the Promised Land, to move from slavery to freedom. To remember the law and the prophets, challenges them to remain faithful to the Covenant. For us, to remember Jesus' holy and blameless sacrifice is to bring that sacrifice before us and change our hearts in the present and the future. To remember the unconditional love of God, enables and urges us to see ourselves as the children of promise.

An inadequate comparison would be like when we discover old photographs or letters from people we loved and how that memory-experience has the power to move us and impact our present. It is like having the moment recreated before us, bringing the memory of the person to the forefront of our consciousness, and allowing the experience to change us emotionally and spiritually. This analogy, of course, falls short of how the grace of God really works. It does, however, show us how even in the human experience of love, memory can transform the human heart and lift it. God's grace in memory does so much more.

"Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again." The Eucharistic acclamation we once proclaimed at mass spoke of past, present and future. The death of the past was resurrected in the present and changed creation for the future. The entire Eucharistic prayer is directed to the Father asking Him to send His Spirit to help us remember what He has done for us through the gift of His Son. It is a prayer based on the power to remember the movements and actions of a Triune God deeply embedded in the human heart and the human experience. It is a prayer calling the faithful together in a communal remembering of a faithful Father, Son, Spirit God who nourishes and transforms a broken people. As those broken and aimless children, we rely on our ability to remember what Jesus has done for us, let God's grace bring it into the present, and nudge us to a different future, filled with grace and hope.

The celebration of the Eucharist is divided into two major parts; the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. We remember the stories of the Old and New Testaments not just as quaint, moralistic tales or mythical, endearing accounts of the Hebrew people or the early Christian church. No, to recount Sacred Scripture in the Eucharistic feast is to proclaim the encounter between God and His people. This very proclamation is a living remembrance. The Word is re-membered in our memories. The proclamation brings the story alive in the present to change us for the future. The stories of thousands of years ago become our stories. The Word is enfleshed in us. In the retelling and proclamation of Sacred Scripture we are remembering what God has done for all of us so that as a people we can receive the precious body and blood of the Savior who is at the heart of the story. The Liturgy of the Eucharist is a continuation of the sacred story of God and His people. We remember what Jesus of Nazareth did for us, the price He paid, the love He so willingly delivered. The sacred words, the sacred people, the sacred actions all bring the memory to life at the altar of sacrifice and the altars of our hearts. God uses our memories to transform all of us into His image and likeness; the God who remembers His people, the God who remembers He loves us.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 1:4-5,17-19 The word of the Lord comes to Jeremiah.

Psalms 71 "I will sing of your salvation."

1 Cor 12:31-13:13 The greatest of these is love.

Luke 4:21-30 The people rise up to drive Jesus out of their town.

Jeremiah is called to preach God's word, but most of the first reading describes God fortifying him against the opposition he will face. Jesus meets opposition from his hometown and needs to move on. But in between we are treated to Saint Paul's rhapsody on love. The Corinthians were alternately jealous and dismissive of others' spiritual gifts. Paul preaches that love is more important than any spiritual gift, for without love nothing else matters.

PARISH DIRECTORY

The new parish directories are complete and ready for distribution! Each family who participated by coming in for a sitting is entitled to a complimentary copy. These will be available after each mass THIS weekend (02/02-03) and NEXT weekend (02/09-10). If you are unable to pick yours up during these times, they will be available in Valentin Hall during business hours. A VERY SPECIAL thank you to Bea Beaux for all her hard work on this project!

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
