Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington:

Pastoral Reflection #26

Risking our mother's wrath, we would sneak out of the house with her favorite large stirring spoons. Why just let them be used for canning figs, making jambalaya or mixing rice dressing? They were ideal for constructing the moats for our castles, the trenches for our hundreds of toy soldiers, the Rio Grande for our cowboys and ranchers, and our own version of the Panama Canal. More often than not the spoons would be abandoned beneath ancient oaks when we decided to play war with the hand-grenade-cones from the magnolias or the 'chinaberries' from the chinaberry and tallow trees. The spoons would remain into the dark, even after the last nighttime version of hide and seek and the final firefly winked goodnight.

The spoons were generous and sturdy, perfect for the digging-dreams of country children. So little compares to a child's imagination and the endless possibilities for changing the rules, redefining the purpose of things, taking a practical utensil and transforming it into an instrument of magic.

In His public ministry, Jesus had that same imagination. He would take the every-day, the mundane and redefine it so His followers could look at it in a new way. He would take water and change it into wine. He would take wine and bread and change them into His body and blood. He would take a mustard seed and weave a parable around it to serve as a challenge of faith or a grain of wheat to call forth the journey of life to death to new life. He would make all things new.

In Jesus' world a sparrow is not just a bird, but a teachable moment. The bird becomes a cause to celebrate the providential tenderness of the Father. The bird does not worry or fret, because even the lowly sparrow is loved beyond reason. The lilies of the field don't panic in their meekness, because even Solomon was not arrayed with the same beauty that radiates from their simplicity. A fig tree challenges the disciple to be productive. Vines and branches reveal the intimate connection of the Creator with the created. The fish of the sea push the fisher to gather them to himself to present them to the Master of the wind and sea. The sheep follow the voice of the one who loves them and protects them from the voices that lurk in the shadows.

Part of becoming like a child in our prayer, is to open our hearts and minds to the power of the gift of imagination. To see things not just as they are, but their connectedness to the Creator. We are called to embrace grace to enable us to follow the thread of the divine that is hidden in the tapestry of creation, in the fabric of our own personhood. The pilgrimage of prayer leads us to the imagination of God. We begin to see the life He created as He sees it. We see ourselves and others as He sees His beloved children. Prayer brings us there.

We sit in silence before the Blessed Sacrament, we pray the rosary, we read the Sacred Scriptures, we dialogue with God, we even celebrate the Sacraments to enter into the mystery of the imagination of God. Prayer is our lifeline to the Father and to ourselves. It is much more than asking for things. It is a surrender of self to the divine who continues to create us in His image and likeness. It is seeing the wonder and magic of life within us and around us, revealed to us by the One who sits with us under the oaks, uses His Mother's spoons and digs in the dirt. He makes all things new.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8 Here I am, send me!

Psalm 138 "In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord."

1 Cor 15:3-8, 11 I handed on to you what I received.

Luke 5:1-11 They left everything, even their nets, and followed Jesus.

An unlikely thread links the three people who are called to be disciples in today's readings: all pronounce themselves unworthy. Isaiah, Paul, and Peter are saints and prophets, but each sees himself first as a sinner. As we listen to the readings today, let us realize that even though we too are unworthy, God still calls us to be disciples.

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
