Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Pastoral Reflection #28

Jesus healed the sick. Do you suppose that every time He touched a person in their illness, in their brokenness, He walked away with a part of their malady now integrated into His very body? When He healed a blind person was His own sight impaired? When He moved the lame to dance did His own legs begin to falter and weaken? Did leprous scales appear on His hands and arms when He freed someone from leprosy? Did a part of Him die when He brought back others from the darkness of death? Was Jesus so entrenched in the human experience that He brought the fragmented onto and into Himself for a moment before the Father brought Him back to wholeness?

When others wept did He weep? When others were wracked with pain did He secretly cry out in agony when He made the pain His own? When the isolation of the disease and illness of others became His did He wander in the realm of aloneness until He found His way back to belonging?

Sickness pulls us away from belonging. It can become the central focus of our lives. It can push us into a place that has no room for others to interfere with our pain, our anxiety, our sorrow, our grief. That is one of the reasons Jesus healed. He did not need to prove His divinity by performing healing miracles to win over the crowds. He did not bring people to wholeness to entertain others or convince Himself of His powers. He healed people to bring them back to belonging.

This wondrous sense of belonging is why the church echoes Jesus' healing ministry with the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and the Elderly. It is a healing sacrament, instituted by Christ that is to counteract the isolation that threatens the child of God due to illness or the weariness of age. It is the healing sacrament that reminds us of the dignity and integrity of all human life that should not be cast aside because of infirmity or incompleteness but should be celebrated within the fullness of the community of believers. A person experiencing the vulnerability of mortality is not to be approached as 'lesser than' but precious to the texture of the whole. Our pilgrim journey together cannot simply abandon those weakened by age or illness because our journey of faith loses its authenticity. We are on this journey together, we belong together, we celebrate the life of God together.

When a priest anoints a person in his/her illness or before a hospital visit or even as death hovers he becomes the conduit of the grace of God to call the person to the belonging. Illness or death is not to bring isolation and abandonment because the person belongs to something greater, Someone greater. The person belongs to the pilgrim community and to God – there is no isolation.

Theologically, that is why the church moved from the notion of the last rites or Extreme Unction to the Sacrament of the Sick and the Elderly; to emphasize the healing that takes place in the celebration of this sacrament of belonging. It is a sacrament of healing.

The words of the sacrament are beautiful: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in His love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up." That is our common prayer; to be raised up, to be re-membered as a viable part of the community of the faithful, to be remembered before God. That is belonging.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

The Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9 David and Saul

12-13, 22-23

Psalm 103 "The Lord is kind and merciful."

1 Cor 15:45-49 We shall bear the image of the heavenly one.

Luke 6:27-38 The measure with which you measure

Will be measured out to you.

In today's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to love their enemies, to be merciful, to do good even to those who do not do so in return. Today's first reading dramatized these lessons. Given the opportunity to kill Saul, David spares his life even though Saul had tried to kill him when he had the chance. "The Lord is kind and merciful," we sing in the psalm. We are called to be as well.

St. Landry's NEW MAUSOLEUM

When the time comes, where will I be buried? Have I made plans for that? How will my loved ones know my wishes? These are questions that we will all have to answer one day. What would you do if something happened in your family tomorrow? We don't like to think about those things and much less discuss the subject, but death is inevitable. Getting your burial space ahead of time is good family planning and makes good practical sense, especially now that our church is having a new mausoleum program in our historical cemetery.

If you buy now, you have choices. There are four different types of doubles, four different levels, also family units. There are different options for payment as well. If you wait until later to purchase, the options will be limited. The moment you sign up you are covered. Now you have the opportunity as husband and wife, and perhaps your entire family, to do your planning together in the privacy of your own home. Taking care of these plans now is a lot easier than to do so following a death.

Representatives from American Cemetery Consultants, are now available to meet with you at your home or at the church office to answer questions about the mausoleum and help you to choose the option that is right for you. The number of crypts selected before construction will determine the final size of the mausoleum. Spaces are reserved on a first come basis. Anyone wanting information should either mail in the postage paid reply card from the brochure that was mailed to your home or call 337-935-3570.
