Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

“Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.” Death steals our joy. It can be the death of a loved one, some tragedy cast upon someone else’s shore, the inevitability of our own death or even the daily assault of our mortality – death steals our joy. This uninvited guest shadows us throughout our lives and reminds us of our fragility and fleetingness. We often say that someone has ‘passed away’ when referring to a loss of life. We are passing through this life, journeying until we pass away on to a different plain, a different home. That passing is what steals our joy, if even for a moment.

It is much too easy for us to reside in sorrow, to dwell in the land of gloom. It is much too easy for us to want to cling to the vestiges of this home rather than set our gaze toward the eternal home. The need to grieve is necessarily a holy part of the process of dying and facing death, a grace of mourning; we know this to be true. To mourn is to release the sadness that lodges in our being, but it cannot become our way of life. We cannot live in the tomb. The great stone has been rolled away. Light has now shattered the darkness. Sin has been conquered. Death has been vanquished.

When the two men in dazzling garments appeared before Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James and the others who were bringing spices to the tomb, they challenged these women to no longer seek Jesus among the dead. He had been raised. He was not there in the way they expected. He was not there in the horror they were anticipating. They were going to mourn and keen over the broken body of the one they loved and served. They were preparing to wallow in grief and unutterable pain before the inconsolable disappointment of the master’s death. Three years they had loved this man, dedicated their whole lives to him, followed him, even to his death. Their lives ended with his. But he was not there.

“...he has been raised.” Such simple words that shatter and scatter like shards the expectations of death. The broken is no longer present. The destroyed is no longer lingering. Death has not endured. Life has not only prevailed, but grown in strength and power. The incalculable power/energy of the Father’s love for His son not only resurrected Jesus from the dead but transformed the face and texture of His own creation. The mortal is now invited into the wonder of immortality with the Father. Jesus’ resurrection empowers us to ‘pass away’ from the old creation into the new creation. Death can no longer steal our joy forever. If Easter promises us anything, it promises us joy, unbridled joy. New life is all around us and in us.

The resurrection is the Father’s new-creation, transformed from death to life by His creative, dynamic Word. He changes His creation to be filled life and love. The cross of the beloved Son becomes the new tree of life. The forbidden fruit that led to death and rejection is replaced with the wine and bread, poured and broken out of eternal love. This wine and bread, the blood and body of the one who saves us. He feeds and sustains us on our journey in this new creation until we are one with Him in the eternal creation, the Father’s embrace.

Easter invites us not to seek life among the dead, but to look within ourselves and each other to the presence of the transforming power of the Father’s love and joy, the resurrected Christ! Have a Happy Easter!

Alleluia
He is

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Easter Sunday

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen.

Psalm 118 "This is the day the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad."

Colossians 3: 1-4 All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven.

John 20:1-9 Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John, respond to the empty tomb.

Today we hear the joyous news from Saints Peter, Paul, and John, each of them attesting to the Easter event. Saint Peter, speaking to a group of non-Christians, testifies to Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Saint Paul writes to the Colossians and the Corinthians about what they should do in the light of Jesus' resurrection. Saint John, in writing the Gospel, tells of the first disciples finding the empty tomb on Sunday morning. As we listen, may we sense the joy and wonder of these first witnesses.

UNPLANNED: The Movie

Please make every effort to see and promote the movie Unplanned, which opened in theaters nationwide March 29. This film tells the true story of Abby Johnson, a Planned Parenthood “Employee of the Year” who saw something that made her an ardent pro-life activist. This powerful film has the potential to turn many hearts. In order to win pro-life legislative victories in the state legislatures and Congress, people must see the humanity of the unborn. Please spread the word to your circle of friends and relatives.
