Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

Volume 68, No. 18 – Third Sunday of Easter – May 05, 2019

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Always at the water's edge, standing on the shore, watching His disciples fishing. He calls to them, telling them where the best catch can be found. He invites them to join Him at the shore for a meal of newly caught fish and apostolic-challenge.

“Simon, son of John, do you love more than these?” What a question! Jesus appears on the shore in His resurrected form, drawing forth from His chosen rock a declaration of love, a demand of love. Three times He asks Simon Peter if he loves Him. Three times He gives Peter the opportunity to make reparation for his three denials before the wake of dawn on that day of betrayal, that day of shame. How Jesus must have loved this fisherman that denied Him, abandoned Him, disavowed Him. How deeply Jesus must have trusted the depth of Peter's heart, the solidity of his faith, the openness of his heart.

Peter says ‘yes’ to the challenging invitation. “Lord, you know that I love you.” Peter knew that Jesus could and would look beyond his failings, his inadequacies. He knew that Jesus would forgive him. He trusted in the uncompromising love of the Anointed One.

But to declare one's love is not sufficient to be in love with the Lord. Discipleship must accompany the declaration. We must be ready to join Him in feeding His lambs, tending His sheep, feeding His sheep. Our relationship with Jesus is caught up in His relationship with His brothers and sisters, our brothers and sisters. We do not love Jesus in a vacuum. We love Him in the context of community, of the family of God. We tend to one another because it is who we are, not just to win points to get to heaven. Because of our love of Jesus, we are connected to His body. It is our nature as disciples to care for each other.

Things will always get in the way. We will always love inadequately. We will deny and betray, be denied and betrayed, but we open ourselves to the purging mercy of Jesus. He knows our hearts. He knows our depths. He knows that with His grace we can join Him in His ministry as shepherd. It may take more than three times for Him to ask us of our heart and being. Most of the time it seems to be every day. But our call to discipleship is not a one-time deal on the shores of Lake Tiberius. It is an ongoing process of declaration and decision to act, to serve.

Gratefully we acknowledge that Jesus is patient with us. His grace of forgiveness moves us even before we ask for it. He fills us with His presence for us to tend to the flock. Each moment He prepares that life-giving meal on the shores of who we are, inviting us to join Him, love Him and in so doing love one another.

We are still caught up in the wonder of Easter joy. Now is the time to renew our declaration of love. Now is the time to give a resounding ‘yes’ to the Master who urges us to experience the fullness of life through Him, and with Him and in Him.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41 The apostles openly give witness to the power of Jesus' name.

Psalm 30 "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."

Revelation 5:11-14 John declares the glory of Jesus, the Lamb of God.

John 21:1-19 The risen Christ welcomes his own of the seashore.

In the decades after the Resurrection, the Risen Lord was portrayed in many different ways. In his Gospel, John shows Jesus interacting with his disciples in the flesh, as he had before his death and resurrection. The author of Revelation visualizes Jesus in glory surrounded by angels and otherworldly creatures. In Acts, Luke portrays Jesus always on the lips and in the minds of the apostles. Listening to today's readings, think about how you visualize Jesus.
