Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Summer is here. Soon families will be traveling or trying to fit in some time for vacation. It may not be far or exotic, but usually it's something just to get away or experience something out of the ordinary course of things. We need that re-creation time to break out of the regular.

We search for white sand or resorts or campgrounds. We visit those relatives who live away or they come visit us. We may even have a 'stay'-cation where we stay home and catch up on some needed rest and relaxation.

Summer in our family meant Holly Beach; pre-Hurricane Rita Holly Beach. I know many people didn't appreciate the muddy waters of the gulf, the jelly fish, the huge feral pigs that rummaged around the camps, the beaches of brown sand and sickening seaweed. Or maybe they couldn't get pass the smells of discarded seafood shells. Many people hated it and were not very sad to see it all wiped clean, completely erased by the fierceness of that storm in September of 2005.

But some of us were sad. We lost a part of our history, a part of our childhood. I do not mean to diminish the experience of others who may have lost family or property or home. It proved to be a devastating storm that caused great damage and terrible sadness to people's lives. My reflection just takes me to a personal loss that always surfaces at the beginning of summer.

Holly Beach is where we did summer family. We created family stories that shaped us. We shared snow-cones and feasts of fresh seafood. We walked on the beach late at night and listened to the Cajun music from the Four Corners fill the air. We were the sun-pilgrims who laughed at something called sunscreen and paid the price for our irresponsibility. We took the sand with us everywhere, and it stuck to us like an unwelcomed and unwanted guest, like a new layer of skin. We got brush-burns from those tractor inner tubes, only adding to our sunburn and misery. We could go to mass in shorts and flip-flops and sweat in an un-airconditioned church that only suggested cool air from ancient oscillating fans. We were happy.

The summer was about being family; about sharing our lives and wasting time with the people we cared for most in this world. We were free to be ourselves with the people we loved. We were free to listen.

Summer provides us with the opportunity to listen; to one another and to our God. The heat of the day invites us to shed our defenses and open ourselves to the wonder of the living God. He is in the family. He is in the marvels around us. He is in the messiness and the order of who we are.

As we travel together and fight over what the GPS is actually saying and "I told you to turn left", let us remember to listen. Let us remember to open our hearts to the re-creating spirit of the God who loves us as He reveals Himself in the miracles around us. Let us remember that He travels with us, always. We might be surprised to discover Him and His love for us in the strangest of places; a resort dedicated to a mouse, a campground nearby or far away, a beach with pristine white sand, or a beach blanketed with seaweed. Wherever you summer, be family together. Listen to each other and listen to the whisperings of a God who loves you.

May God keep you safe. Have a happy journey. Have a good summer.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Ascension of the Lord

Acts 7:55-60 Stephen manifests love of Jesus to the end.

Psalm 97 “The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.”

Rev 22: 12-20 Jesus is coming soon.

John 17:20-26 The Lord prays for us: May we be one, united in the love of Father and Son.

In the Gospel, Jesus prays that his disciples may all be one—not just his current disciples, but also all his disciples in the future. He is praying for us as well. As we listen to today's readings—to Stephen, the martyr; to John, the visionary; to Jesus, right before he gave his life—let us pray that all Christians, past, present, and future, may be one. May we be of one mind, one heart, one faith.
