Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

After the Jesus-event (His birth, life, crucifixion, death, resurrection and Ascension), after Pentecost (the birth of the Church and the sending forth of the people of God), what did those early Christian communities look like? At first they did not call themselves 'Christians'. They saw themselves as Jews who believed the Messiah had come. As the Apostles and Paul established more and more communities inside and around Jerusalem and then further on to Antioch (today's Istanbul) and Rome and beyond, then they referred to themselves as Christians.

A community of the faithful would be established; they would pray together, worship together, share their lives with one another. Together they would share the stories of the Jesus-event. Nothing had been written down. For at least the first sixty years after Jesus' Ascension, they relied on the sacred stories that brought life to the community. In sharing these wondrous, life-giving stories the community knew Jesus, lived Jesus, died for and with Jesus. Those first liturgies were in the homes of the faithful. Many of our first liturgies in our diocese were in people's homes. There is something holy about those first masses in our area being celebrated in the homes of people and families of faith; the stories of their lives mingled with the Body and Blood of Jesus in their homes.

In the age of persecution, the faithful would identify themselves to other Christians by making the sign of the cross in the dust of the earth. What a beautiful way to identify oneself. You can almost hear their whispers. "I am a believer of the Way. My life rests in the cross that was embraced by the Father's Son to remove my sin. My identity is in the cross that I etch in the earth, here today and gone tomorrow, but then I will write it again and again. As the winds blow it away, I will carve it again, just as it is carved in my very soul. I reveal it to you to remind you that you are loved by not only unworthy me, but by the one who stretched out His arms and embraced the world. Together we live in the warmth of that fierce embrace. Together we are afire in the love of Jesus."

Those early communities were joy-filled. They knew that their Redeemer lived. They knew they could place their trust in the One who loved them, they knew they could place their trust in each other.

That is a hard, but not impossible legacy for us to follow. It is a challenge for us to move beyond our private, self-centered relationship with God and come to know and appreciate that we are believers in the Way who live our faith in the context of community. We celebrate the Sacraments in community. We share the stories of our faith journey in community. We come to know that we are Christians in community.

We are at our best when we gather as the faith community to celebrate the Eucharist. We come to our home to listen to the stories of salvation. We come to remember in Word and Eucharist the transforming sacrifice of Jesus. We come to let the story overwhelm us and lead us back into the wider community to bring the Way to the world.

We come to let our stories mingle with Jesus' story, to let grace transform our stories to be more like His. We trust in Him and we trust in each other to be the community of the faithful, the faith-filled. We are the Church. We are known as Christians by our love and the way we radiate the love of God by our lives. When we say the mass is ended, we also mean the mission has begun. We spread the Good News, because we live the Good News each and every day. We etch the sign of the cross in the dust before us to reveal to the world that our path is that of Jesus of Nazareth, the Way, the Truth and the Life.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:16b-21 Elisha left everything to inherit Elijah's prophetic role.

Psalm 16 "You are my inheritance O Lord."

Galatians 5:1, 13-18 A proper use of freedom includes service to others, motivated by love.

Luke 9:51-62 Jesus expects us to leave everything to follow him.

In today's Gospel, Jesus, knowing what was to come, "resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem." On this journey, which will stretch over many months of readings from Luke's Gospel, Jesus teaches his disciples and the crowds how God wants us to live our lives. Today we learn that discipleship demands a total commitment. Listening to today's readings, we have the opportunity to think of what we are willing to leave behind on our journey toward the kingdom of God.

There are two terms currently up for election. If you or someone you know might be interested in serving our parish in this capacity, please submit your name to either Msgr. Harrington or Deacon Joubert. The elections, if necessary, will be held in July.

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account. We believe this is a wonderful opportunity for us to grow in our faith.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
