Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

The following are a few points from last week's homily on discipleship:

The Ten Commandments of Discipleship

1. Believe in the Good News. For us to be disciples it is necessary to believe in the message of Jesus Christ. We must always remember that we are loved unconditionally, not because of anything we have done or deserved. Jesus came to tell us the stories of the loving Father and the life-giving Spirit. To be a disciple is to know that we are always loved, especially if we are to follow the One who was always confident in the Father's love.
2. Stay in communication with the Lord. Open and constant communication with Jesus is essential to discipleship. The sacraments, prayer, scripture, works of charity all help us to keep our connectedness to the One who calls us to be disciples. He reads our hearts, but we must still listen and express ourselves to the Divine Master. We are in relationship so we must communicate.
3. Don't be afraid. Sometimes we may think we have nothing to offer. We don't know enough; our faith is not strong enough. We are afraid we will make terrible mistakes or not live up to God's expectations. We face our fears and inadequacies to follow Him. He will lead us and guide us. The Spirit is always with us.
4. Don't be discouraged. We will find that when we witness to the gospel of life, the right to life, the gospel of freedom for all people, the gospel of justice we can become discouraged or frustrated. It is even difficult at times to convince others that God loves them. Discipleship can be challenging in many ways. We must remember to witness, but ultimately to trust in the Father to accomplish all things.
5. Believe in God's people. We are called to recognize the goodness of people. We serve them not as their superiors, but as servants of the gospel. We trust in their integrity, their goodness and their holiness. We love our brothers and sisters as God loves them.
6. Learn from others, especially the ones you minister to/with. One of the greatest gifts of discipleship is to be open to the stories of others. We learn our most valuable lessons from those we serve. Their grace touches us, moves us, encourages us. We listen to them to hear the voice of God.
7. Don't wear glasses of shame. Toxic shame is not conducive to faithful discipleship. Our own self-hatred hinders us from recognizing our own beauty which further hinders us from recognizing the beauty and integrity of others. We wear shame-glasses and cannot see the wonder before us. If we are so busy evaluating them and figuring out ways they 'should' be living, we discard something sacred.
8. Accept support from others along the way. One of the most humbling parts of discipleship is acknowledging our need to be supported and helped by others. We are on this journey together. We support each other; we love each other. When we are not strong, we rely on others to lift us up.
9. Make room for mercy and forgiveness. We will make mistakes. We will fall and fail. There is always a need for God's mercy and forgiveness. We also need the forgiveness of others that we have wronged, even if our intentions were good.
10. Remember that you are not God, therefore: no judging, no fixing, no power, no control – let God be God. You are only a disciple!
11. As the little girl reminded me at 4:00 mass when she came up to get her bulletin, there is an eleventh commandment. Do all this with a joyful heart.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 66:10-14c Mother Jerusalem will gather her children.

Psalm 66 "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

Galatians 6:14-18 I bear in my body the brand marks of Jesus.

Luke 10:1-13, 17-20 If people welcome you, bid them peace.

Every Mass begins and ends with the sign of the cross. It is the most prominent sign of our identity as Christians. Saint Paul boasts in it, for it has transformed us all. The disciples bear it, sent out as lambs among wolves. The cross is our reminder that we should expect to suffer. But it is also a reminder of our redemption. Isaiah sings of the return to Jerusalem from exile, a redemption for Israel. Let us note the power of the cross as we listen to today's readings.

THE LESS FORTUNATE

There are many in our community who are less fortunate than we are and find it difficult to survive on what income they might have. While we are sympathetic to this, we do not condone the act of soliciting on our church campus. Please know that anyone who has come to the office in need food or shelter has been attended to as Msgr. Harrington deems appropriate. It is in the best interest of this effort that anyone who expresses a need of monetary or other aid be referred to the church office at Valentin Hall. This is for the safety and fair treatment of everyone. Contributions to this cause are always welcome.

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
