Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

This weekend at all the masses, we welcome Fr. Roberto Perez, O. Carm. Fr. Perez is a Carmelite missionary priest who is making an appeal for the missionary ministry of his community. Missionary work is an invaluable effort of many in the church throughout the world. It is the church witnessing to the compassion of God to our brothers and sisters here in our midst and beyond our own boundaries. When Jesus instructed His disciples to go out into the world and spread the good news, His instruction included preaching and witnessing with words, but also with pastoral action. The work of missionaries is so important for the spread of the gospel and the actualization of the love of God in people's lives across the earth.

Some in our own local community have done mission work before. They know how sacred this endeavor is and what wondrous effects this can have in the life of a child or a struggling family or a farmer. A missionary understands and knows how life-giving their ministry can be to those who are in need. They also know how wondrous the experience can be to discover the extraordinary faith of a culture or a single person who is touched by God.

The missionary work of the church is the work of the whole church. We reach out to our brothers and sisters because we are the church together. Catholicism is not a 'them' and 'us' reality, but a universal adventure/covenant with the Father of Jesus. What happens across the world touches each of us because we are connected with one another. We are branches of the one vine. We are the threads in the one great tapestry of the Father's creation.

As we listen and reflect on the mission-story that Fr. Roberto shares with us, let us remember that we are called as well to be a part of his story and the stories of those who are served by his community. On behalf of Fr. Roberto, I would like to thank you for your consideration, your prayers and your gifts that you share for this most important ministry in the church.

Next weekend the second collection will go towards this important ministry. Any Bishop Service Appeal envelopes can be dropped in the first collection. Thank you all so much for your generosity and openness to join and/or continue in the mission work of the church.

On another note, next weekend will be the final weekend that the seminarians, Chad and Dylan, will be with us here at St. Landry. We thank them for their ministry this summer and assure them of our prayers and support as they continue with their formation. May God continue to watch over them and fill them with his countless blessings.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ecc1 1:2, 2:21-23 All things are vanity!

Psalms 90 "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

Col 3:1-5, 9-11 In Christ you have died. In Christ you have been raised up.

Luke 12: 13-21 Avoid greed in all its forms.

Today's reading from Ecclesiastes and today's Gospel from Luke each feature a wealthy and successful individual. The rich man in Jesus' parable thinks he is all set for life, but he is about to get a most unpleasant surprise. At least the character in the first reading realizes he can't take it with him, but this doesn't leave him any happier. Saint Paul's words of advice to the Colossians point to an alternative: "See what is above." As we listen to the readings today, let us think of how we should do this

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

ONLINE CATECHESIS

The Diocese of Lafayette has partnered with Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, to give everyone in the diocese access to workshops that can help in their religious formation. Although some of the workshops are geared towards teachers, many simply give information on topics that many of us want to know more about (i.e. the Eucharist, Mary, New Testament, Old Testament). All you have to do is go to www.franciscanathome.com/diolaf to begin to create your account. The Office of Catechetics has a short 3 minute video on their webpage that will direct you on how to create an account. Our parish (or institution) has already been placed in the system, so all you have to do is create your personal account.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
