Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the Desk of Msgr. Harrington...

Almost fifty years ago a powerful movie was released that many perhaps did not see. Although nominated for many Academy Awards, I Never Sang for My Father remains one of those movies that never make a big splash or have a huge drawing of fans. The film starred Melvyn Douglas and a young Gene Hackman. The movie starts and concludes with a compelling statement; death ends a life, but not a relationship, which continues to live in the mind and heart of the survivor. (I apologize for the paraphrase, but it has been a while since I've seen the movie).

When we lose someone, we know that our relationship with them does not really end. Our heart refuses to let our memories of that person disappear. Those memories might fade a bit over years, but they don't simply evaporate. We remember that person, we remember all of those who have gone before us who have touched our lives in profound and miraculous ways. We miss them, and we pray for them.

The church in Her wisdom knows the richness and value of these relationships. We pray for their swift passage to the infinite embrace of the Father. We pray for their eternal peace and everlasting joy. We pray for their forgiveness of our sin and assure them of our forgiveness of theirs. We ask for their protection and assistance in our continued journey here on earth. We remember them, especially at this sacred time of the year.

The Feast of All Saints, the Feast of All Souls, the blessing of cemeteries, the celebrations of the Eucharist in memory of the deceased, the burning of candles and the constant flow of prayers serve as vehicles of remembrance and love for our dearly departed. They have joined the communion of Saints and we are grateful for having known them and loved them. As one tremendous community of the faithful, we gather before the throne of the Father and pray for one another.

Those invaluable relationships with those who have gone before us give us hope for eternal life, faith-strength, heaven-desires and resurrection-promises. We join the chorus of God's angels to lift up our brothers and sisters in prayer. By remembering who they were, we remember who we are. We remember how their love helped to define us. We remember how they assisted us in stealing a glimpse of the divine presence as God revealed Himself to us through them. Once imperfect vessels of grace, they now rejoice as children of freedom and resurrection who love perfectly before the throne. We are grateful to God for them and because of them.

God's grace reminds us that we are also called to sanctity. We are also members of the communion of saints. Our task is to not waste these precious moments that we have each and every day. Our lives ARE precious; the lives of others are precious. We must be busy about the concerns of the kingdom by recognizing the kingdom in our midst. Let us pray for our beloved departed and let us pray for ourselves and one another.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 35 12-14, 16-18 The God of justice knows no favorites.

Psalm 34 "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

2 Tim 4:6-8, 16-18 I have competed well, I have finished the race.

Luke 18: 9-14 "O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

It is the prayers of the needy that scripture tells us God hears. Sirach mentions the widow and the orphan, the lowly and the oppressed. Jesus tells of the tax collector, acknowledging his sinfulness and his need for God's mercy. The Lord hears the cry of the poor, we sing in the psalm. Let us look inside ourselves and recognize our needfulness, our humanness, our poverty. What prayer do we need to make to God today?

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

-Michael Vidrine St. John, Melville
-Trey Fontenot Sacred Heart of Jesus, VP
-Garrett Broussard OLOGC, LC

Father, in your plan for our salvation you provide shepherds for your people. Fill your Church with the spirit of courage and love. AMEN.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.
