Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

“A voice crying out in the wilderness.” Those are the words sacred scripture uses to introduce the adult John the Baptist. He is the prophet serving as witness to the Messianic Age. He is the wilderness-voice that awakens the sleeping world to the one who will change everything, who will electrify this world with the power of His love. He is the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth who stirs in the presence of the Holy One.

Who was John? We know he was the cousin of Jesus, born to an older couple who were thought to be barren. We know he felt compelled to go into the desert, surviving on locusts and wild honey. He comes out of that experience, preaching of baptism for the forgiveness of sins and the need to change one’s life in order to welcome the Messiah, the Promised One. He baptizes Jesus in the Jordan, is eventually arrested and beheaded for witnessing to the truth.

Who was this dangerous, challenging prophet? What made him go into the desert? Were his parents, Elizabeth and Zechariah, disappointed in his decision? Did he break their hearts when he left them? Were they still alive when he wrestled with the Word of God in the desert? What gave him his passion, his zeal, his relentless faith? How did he arrive at the conclusion that he must diminish as Jesus’ way brightened? When he was in Herod’s prison, did he wonder if he maybe made the wrong decisions or that maybe God had abandoned him?

John was a true prophet, set on fire by the hand of God. His whole being was consumed with longing for the life-giving God who created something out of nothing, who brought life into desert and made the highways straight so that others could find Him. John knew God. God did not abandon him but gave him the confidence of His presence to endure, to thrive and not solely survive.

John’s calling is like our own. We are invited to be prophets of the Messianic age. The Holy One’s coming is to be announced and proclaimed by us. We exit from the desert of our lives into the richness of our world to announce a year of favor from the Lord. We work with Him at releasing those imprisoned in sadness and bring good news to the impoverished. We take on John’s job to be the herald of Jesus, to raise up the valleys and lower the mountains, to create a level pathway for our God.

Like John the Baptist, we become those voices in the desert, proclaiming the greatness of our God and witnessing to the freedom He brings to a broken world. In this Advent season, we are empowered as prophets to bring light to the darkness, to bring life to the barren world. As we draw ever closer to the hustle and bustle of Christmas, we are charged with the Word of God to remind ourselves not to become lost in busy-ness, but to model patience, kindness, God’s mercy, God’s love, God’s peace.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

3rd Sunday in Advent

Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10 The desert will bloom.
Psalms 146 "Lord, come and save us."
James 5:7-10 Be patient like a farmer waiting for spring.

Matthew 11:2-11 In prison, John received word of the coming of Christ

Isaiah sings a song of rebirth today, describing Israel after the exile. Flowers bloom, disabilities are healed, sorrow turns to joy. The letter of James counsels us to be patient during this transformation. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds John's disciples that he has done just what Isaiah prophesied. What's more, the kingdom of heaven promises greatness for all. As we listen to God's word, let us rejoice, for we know that God is with us.
