Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

In the book of Genesis, we hear the story of Jacob and his twelve sons. His two youngest sons were Joseph and Benjamin. Joseph was an interpreter of dreams and his father's favorite. After his brothers secretly sold him into slavery to the Ishmaelites, the Ishmaelites then sold him to the Egyptians. Moved by Joseph's ability to interpret dreams and grateful that his interpretations saved them all in a time of famine, the Egyptians placed him in a position of honor and wealth. Joseph's family eventually join him and benefit from his extraordinary gift. The Hebrews remain in Egypt, become slaves of the Egyptians, and experience freedom through the work of Moses. But it is the great patriarch, Joseph son of Jacob, who uses his gifts to help save God's people in their time of need.

Many generations and centuries later another Joseph takes his place in salvation history. This Joseph, a faithful man of Israel, chooses a young woman of Israel to become his wife. The couple is betrothed to be married. We know his story. We know how disappointed and disturbed he becomes when he is confronted with the news that his betrothed, Mary, is with child. It was well within his rights to expose her to the law, to see that she would be stoned to death for this serious violation of the law. His decision to divorce her quietly shows his powerful compassion and mercy. He could not be the one to put his beloved to death, no matter how justified he would be. He chose mercy above the law.

And then he dreams. Like Joseph of the Old Testament, this Joseph interprets his dream to save not only the Blessed Mother, but the entire world. Where Joseph, son of Jacob, saves the Hebrews from famine, Joseph, betrothed of Mary, saves the world from death. His decision to remain at Mary's side and become the earthly father of the child Jesus, frees all of us. His interpretation of dreams invites all of us to heed the voices of angels in our midst.

St. Joseph is the model of the new patriarch. He stands by his wife and son. He teaches his son his carpentry skills and what it means to be a man of faith. He teaches Jesus what it means to be a person of compassion and mercy. He teaches Jesus what it means to be a person of patience and fidelity. The Son of God learns from His earthly father what it means to be a humble person with unconquerable strength. The Son of God learns what it means to be a man of God.

In this holy season of Advent, the Father once again gives us a person to model for us and to walk with us on our journey to Bethlehem. The Father gives us a son of David to accompany us to the City of David. St. Joseph, the interpreter of dreams, teaches us to know our God, to listen to His voice and the voices of His messengers, and to trust in His presence in our lives. The Father of St. Joseph, the Blessed Mother and the Christ is OUR Father. He stirs up the saints and all creation to lead us to Himself. He will have us by His side for eternity. He will liberate us from our sin and hold us in love. He will wait until the last of us enjoys the fulness of His embrace. He is our God and we are His people.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Wishing you all a Very Merry Christmas!

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

4th Sunday in Advent

Isaiah 7:10-14 The Virgin shall be with child
Psalms 24 "Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory."
Romans 1:1-7 Jesus is the son of David and the Son of God.
Matthew 1:18-24 Joseph, son of David, have no fear about taking Mary as your wife.

As we close in on an even that changed the course of history, we hear in the words of scripture how the birth of Jesus fulfilled prophecies from hundreds of years earlier. Isaiah tells the king that a virgin will bear a son, who will come from the house of David and be called Emmanuel, "God is with us." Mary, the Blessed Virgin Mother, and Joseph, of the house of David, willingly agree to God's plan. God is with us as we celebrate the final Sunday of Advent today.

Christmas

Isaiah 52:7-10;

Psalms 98;

Hebrews 1:1-6;

John 1:1-18 or 1:1-5, 9-14

"All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God," we sing in today's psalm, for salvation has come to the world through God's Son. Isaiah proclaims the glad tidings centuries before the holy birth. Hebrews teaches us that Jesus is the culmination of God's word. John uses the beautiful image of the World becoming flesh, embracing us all in God's holy orbit. Jesus has made his dwelling among us, and indeed in us.
