Mission Statement:

St. Landry Catholic Church is a community of the faithful that serves God and our neighbors by coming to know and love more deeply Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through the study of Sacred Scripture and by practicing the traditions handed down to us, especially the seven sacraments. By the help of Jesus' Grace, we seek to imitate Him in His faith, hope and charity so that we can receive His gift of salvation in eternal life.

From the desk of Msgr. Harrington...

The Greek philosopher Aristotle defined human beings as by nature social animals. We belong to a society that preexisted our individual births. The human heart longs to belong, to be a part of something greater than itself. At times, we may want to be apart or live in isolation, but ultimately we share in the lives of others. We are interrelated to members of the world; we share in the lives of all created things. We belong.

Baptism is an initiation into belonging. It celebrates the movement from original sinfulness into the kingdom of the redeemed. It celebrates the movement from the individual to the community of family, of the faithful. That is why in the ritual itself we begin by marking the soon-to-be-baptized with the sign of the cross. In the name of the Trinity the person is proclaimed to now be a member of the family of God. At an infant's Baptism, I like to have everyone present make the sign of the cross on the child's forehead. Everyone should welcome the child into the family, the family that will love them and take care of them, and the family of the Church.

Baptism is the movement of belonging. It tells the person they are loved; they are beloved by God and the Christian community. Each baptized person belongs to God and the community. "Dearly beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not come to light. We know we shall be like him, we shall see him as he is." (1 John 3:2).

Jesus insisted on being baptized by John, not to wash any sinfulness that clung to His soul. He was sinless. He was baptized to model for us what it means to belong. At the cusp of His public ministry, Jesus chooses to embrace belonging as a sign of His love and commitment to the people the Father entrusts to His care. He reveals that He is one of us, He belongs to us, and we belong to Him. We are caught up with Him in the great family of God.

John baptizes Jesus with the water that Jesus changes into the living waters of God's salvation. This is the living water that He will offer to the woman at the well in Samaria. This is the living water that will be changed into wine at the wedding feast in Cana. This is the living water that He will use to wash the feet of His disciples. This is the living water that will flow from his wounded side.

At the baptism of the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire, a dove descends – a voice is heard. The Spirit ushers in the Father's dynamic words of affirmation and approval of His son. Jesus is beloved. Jesus belongs.

Now the invitation is given to us to belong. To see that when we feel so isolated, so alienated for whatever reason or reasons, we open our hearts to God's grace that tells us we belong. The Spirit of the love between Father and Son reminds us that we too are beloved. We belong.

All those times when we feel that we do not belong, the Spirit nudges and prods us with grace to remind us that we do belong.

By virtue of His baptism, Jesus gathers us to Himself to remind us of our baptism into His heart. We live there. We all belong there.

READINGS FOR FAITH SHARING

Baptism of the Lord

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7 Here is my servant.

Psalm 29 “The Lord will bless his people with peace.”

Acts 10:34-38 God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit and power.

Matthew 3:13-17 The Spirit of God descends like a dove.

The Son of God is gradually revealed to the world. Isaiah speaks of the servant of the LORD who brings justice and compassion. Peter preaches to a group of Gentiles, telling them that God was with Jesus as he brought hope and healing to all people. Finally, we hear the Father’s voice from the heavens at Jesus’ baptism: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.” May we see him revealed today in the Word, in the Eucharist, and in each other.

PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY

Sunday, 01/12 Fr. John “Buddy” Breaux

Monday, 01/13 Fr. Louis Allen Breaux
